

Composer Biography Research

Using various resources, find a percussionist from any musical genre other than popular music of your generation.

Use the following as a guide. You can include other important information.

- Name of composer
- Date of Birth
- Style of Music
- Place of Birth
- Important facts or mile stones in their life
- Their influences
- Their contribution to the music and discography or catalogue (if recorded)
- Any other special facts (EG. Special techniques that they invented or mastered)

Once you have collected the appropriate information, write a one to two page, typed biography on the percussionist you have chosen.

OR

Do a power point presentation

Yes, spelling counts,

Yes, grammar counts,

Yes, it must be a full page (minimum)

Yes, you need to do this

And finally, Yes, I am the Master of Funk!

Due Date: by the end of the course.

But don't wait to the end because you have things like exams to study for, and culminating activities to complete. Why burden yourself at the end of the course? Do your biography today!