

Violin Composer Biography Research

Using various resources, find a composer of violin or fiddle music from any musical genre. The person may compose other music but must be known as a violinist/fiddler composer. Collect data onto a word file and save it. (Don't print out)

Look for the following information:

- Name of Artist
- Date of Birth
- Style of Music
- Place of Birth
- Important fact in their life
- Their influences
- Their contribution to the violin (techniques, famous songs etc.)
- Any other special facts

Once you have collected the appropriate information, write a one page, typed biography on the composer you have chosen.

Yes, spelling counts,
Yes, grammar counts,
Yes, it must be a full page (minimum),
Yes, you need to do this,
And finally, Yes, I am the master of funk!

Due Date: by the end of the course.

But don't wait to the end because you have things like exams to study for, and culminating activities to complete. Why burden yourself at the end of the course? Do your biography today!
